VACANCY PROTECTION ASSISTANT ETC Timișoara

AIDRom - The Ecumenical Association of Churches in Romania is hiring a Refugee Protection Assistant to carry out daily activities within the project "Assistance and services offered to refugees at the Emergency Transit Centre in Timișoara", which also includes support for Ukrainian refugees, a project funded by the High Commission of the United Nations for Refugees (UNHCR - Representative Office in Romania).

Duration: The employment contract will be full-time (8 hours/day), until December 31st, 2023, and may be extended, depending on individual performance and availability of funds.

Main responsibilities:

- Ensures the participation of refugees in information sessions, discussions, focus groups, individual or community assessments regarding risk assessment and the exercise/respect of their rights,
- Participates in the implementation and monitoring of the individual case management system, ensuring that the services offered by the multidisciplinary team are properly documented for each individual case,
- Participates in the organization of psycho-social meetings, writes the minutes of the meetings and updates the individual case management files,
- Develops the weekly plan according to the needs of the refugees,
- Updates and maintains the refugee database with all relevant information,
- Carries out a constant analysis on the risks and capacities of the refugees/community (using criteria such as: age, gender, diversity, etc.),
- Ensures that the services, planning and programs implemented for refugees use the participatory approach. In this sense, he/she implements constant mechanisms for collecting feedback and analysing it, and formulates recommendations for the implementation of specific actions based on community feedback,
- Stays constantly informed about the political, social, economic and cultural developments that have an impact on the protection environment, through documentation and by maintaining the relationship with the refugees and the network of partners,
- Identifies and ensures compliance, in the provision of services, of the specific protection needs of women and men, children, young people and the elderly, people with disabilities, or other marginalized groups (LGBTQIA+, people with chronic or acute diseases, etc.) ,
- Identifies individuals or groups in priority need for counselling and other activities, based on criteria agreed with the team in the organization and the UNHCR Protection Team; prepares reports and sends them to specialized services and departments in the organization,
- Identifies the protection risks of the refugee community, explores their causes and effects and proposes prevention and/or response measures, under the coordination of UNHCR; actively participates in the early identification of specific needs and in the development of the intervention plan according to existing practice,
